Recruitment Application

What is recruitment application?

As part of any recruitment process, Banbury Town Council collect and process personal data relating to job applicants. The organisation is committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses that data and meets its data protection obligations.

Personal information is any information about an individual from which that person can be directly or indirectly identified.

Contact details specific to service

If you have any queries that are specific to how your personal data is used as part of our recruitment process contact: mark.hassall@banbury.gov.uk or write to the Town Clerk, Banbury Town Council, Town Hall, Bridge Street, Banbury, Oxon, OX16 5QB

How we use your information collected

The information you provide will be used to confirm your identity and process your job application.

Other than employment agencies, the Councils will only seek personal information from third parties during the recruitment process where consent is given to contact your references.

Who will have access to my personal data?

The information you provide will only be used by The Council and will not be shared with any other organisation without obtaining your consent.

The Council take all precautions to ensure your personal data is secure and used only for the purposes for which it was obtained, unless permitted by law to process it for other purposes.

What information is processed?

The Councils process a range of personal information about you during the recruitment process. This includes:

- your name, address, contact details and NI number
- personal information included in a CV, any application form, cover letter or references we obtain
- any disability, for which the Councils needs to make reasonable adjustments

If you fail to provide certain personal information when requested, we may not be able to process your job application.

Retention period

Application forms of unsuccessful candidates will be destroyed after six months following an appointment to the job. Information relating to successful candidates will be added to personnel files and retained for up to six years from date of termination of employment.

Summary of rights

You have a number of statutory rights to the information we hold on you and these are explained in our General Privacy Notice found on our website at www.banbury.gov.uk (Council/Data Protection 2018). Alternatively you can request this information by email: info@banbury.gov.uk
