Banbury Town Council is the Data Controller under the data protection law 2018 and will use the information you provide on this form to manage the administration of Banbury Cemeteries (Southam Road and Hardwick Hill).

If you include any personal details on the Notice of Interment/Pre-purchase Application Form on behalf of an organisation or group, the legal basis for processing data is your consent to do so.

The legal basis for collecting the information is based on the requirements of The Local Authorities' Cemeteries Order 1977 and your consent.

We will hold the following information for you:

Name: (The Local Authorities' Cemeteries Order 1977)
Address: (The Local Authorities' Cemeteries Order 1977)
Telephone Number: Consent
Email: Consent

The information will be held in both hard copy and electronically and will be stored in the UK in a secure environment.

Legally required data will be retained indefinitely for legal and archive purposes and if ownership of the grave space is transferred to another person, for a period of six years for contract purposes. Data held by consent will be retained indefinitely for legal, management and contract purposes or until a request is received to delete it.

Individuals have a number of rights under data protection law, including the right to request their information. You also have a right to make a complaint about our handling of your personal data to the Information Commissioner's Office <https://ico.org.uk/>

Information you provide will only be used for the stated purpose. Further information about the processing of your data can be found on our website at <http://www.banbury.gov.uk/>

We will not normally share your information with organisations other than our partner organisations without your consent. However, there may be certain circumstances where we would share without consent such as where we are required to do so by law, to safeguard public safety, and in risk of harm or emergency situations. Any information which is shared will only be shared on a need to know basis, with appropriate individuals. Only the minimum information for the purpose will be shared.

You can contact the Town Council's Data Protection Officer at Banbury Town Council, The Town Hall, Bridge Street, Banbury, OX16 5QB, by email at info@banbury.gov.uk or by telephone on 01295 250340.
